Holy Souls' Car Park: if you sometimes use the car park it is important that the fire exit ramp from the hall is not blocked! A complaint has been made to the local fire brigade regarding this issue and Fr Neil has spoken with the property department for the Diocese. They have recommended applying some yellow warning markings near the ramp and this will be arranged in the coming weeks. We appreciate your cooperation in this matter.

Fourth Blessed Sacrament Procession led by Bishop Patrick on Sunday, 2nd June. Starting at 2.00 pm from St Mary's Church, Goodliffe Street, Hyson Green, Nottingham, NG7 6FY. Ending at 4.00 pm (approx.) at St Barnabas Cathedral with prayers at the tomb of the Venerable Mary Potter. All welcome.

Please remember in your prayers Simon Peter Lewis who died recently, and who once was a resident of Crowle FOODBANK: Thank you for all your donations for the Epworth foodbank. The next collection will be June/July.

Pope Francis' Tweet of the Week: God searches for you, even if you don't search for Him. God loves you, even if you have forgotten Him. God looks for beauty in you, even if you think you have uselessly squandered all your talents.

Pope Francis's Prayer Intention for May: Evangelization - Church in Africa
 That the Church in Africa, through the commitment of its members, may be the seed of unity among her peoples and a sign of hope for the continent.

3rd Sunday of Easter (C)

First Reading:

Acts 5:27-32.40-41

Theme: We are witnesses of all this, we and the Holy Spirit.

The high priest demanded an explanation of the apostles. We gave you a formal warning he said not to preach in this name, and what have you done? You have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and seem determined to fix the guilt of this mans death on us. In reply Peter and the apostles said, Obedience to God comes before obedience to men; it was the God of our ancestors who raised up Jesus, but it was you who had him executed by hanging on a tree. By his own right hand God has now raised him up to be leader and saviour, to give repentance and forgiveness of sins through him to Israel. We are witnesses to all this, we and the Holy Spirit whom God has given to those who obey him. They warned the apostles not to speak in the name of Jesus and released them. And so they left the presence of the Sanhedrin glad to have had the honour of suffering humiliation for the sake of the name.

The word of the Lord.

R/. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: I will praise you, Lord, you, have rescued me.

Second Reading:

Apocalypse 5:11-14

Theme: The Lamb that was sacrificed is worthy to be given riches and power.

In my vision, I, John, heard the sound of an immense number of angels gathered round the throne and the animals and the elders; there were ten thousand times ten thousand of them and thousands upon thousands, shouting, 'The Lamb that was sacrificed is worthy to be given power, riches, wisdom, strength, honour, glory and blessing.' Then I heard all the living things in creation - everything that lives in the air, and on the ground, and under the ground, and in the sea, crying, 'To the One who is sitting on the throne and to the Lamb, be all praise, honour, glory and power, for ever and ever.' And the four animals said, 'Amen'; and the elders prostrated themselves to worship.

The word of the Lord.

R/. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation: Alleluia, Alleluia!

Lord Jesus, explain the Scriptures to us.

Make our hearts burn within us as you talk to us. Alleluia!

Gospel Reading:

John 21:1-19

Theme: Jesus stepped forward, took the bread and gave it to them, and the same with the fish.

Jesus showed himself again to the disciples. It was by the Sea of Tiberias, and it happened like this: Simon Peter, Thomas called the Twin, Nathanael from Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee and two more of his disciples were together. Simon Peter said, 'I'm going fishing.' They replied, 'We'll come with you.' They went out and got into the boat but caught nothing that night. It was light by now and there stood Jesus on the shore, though the disciples did not realise that it was Jesus. Jesus called out, 'Have you caught anything, friends?' And when they answered, 'No', he said, 'Throw the net out to starboard and you'll find something.' So they dropped the net, and there were so many fish that they could not haul it in. The disciple Jesus loved said to Peter, 'It is the Lord.' At these words 'It is the Lord', Simon Peter, who had practically nothing on, wrapped his cloak round him and jumped into the water. The other disciples came on in the boat, towing the net and the fish; they were only about a hundred yards from land. As soon as they came ashore they saw that there was some bread there, and a charcoal fire with fish cooking on it. Jesus said, 'Bring some of the fish you have just caught.' Simon Peter went aboard and dragged the net to the shore, full of big fish, one hundred and fifty-three of them; and in spite of there being so many the net was not broken. Jesus said to them, 'Come and have breakfast.' None of the disciples was bold enough to ask, 'Who are you?'; they knew quite well it was the Lord. Jesus then stepped forward, took the bread and gave it to them, and the same with the fish. This was the third time that Jesus showed himself to the disciples after rising from the dead. After the meal Jesus said to Simon Peter, 'Simon son of John, do you love me more than these others do?' He answered, 'Yes Lord, you know I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my lambs.' A second time he said to him, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' He replied, 'Yes, Lord, you know I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Look after my sheep.' Then he said to him a third time, 'Simon son of John, do you love me?' Peter was upset that he asked him the third time, 'Do you love me?' and said, 'Lord, you know everything; you know I love you.' Jesus said to him, 'Feed my sheep. I tell you most solemnly, when you were young you put on your own belt and walked where you liked; but when you grow old you will stretch out your hands, and somebody else will put a belt round you and take you where you would rather not go.' In these words he indicated the kind of death by which Peter would give glory to God. After this he said, 'Follow me.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

R/. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon:

The disciples recognised the Lord Jesus
In the breaking of the bread. Alleluia.

Diocesan Pilgrimage to Walsingham: Saturday 15th June 2019. A bus is being organised: it will leave Holy Souls at 7.15am, calling at St. Bernadette's church at 7.30am, Caenby Corner at 7.55am, and then (possibly) St. Hugh's Lincoln. The cost is £15 per person. If interested please add your name to the list found on the noticeboard. (This bus trip is dependent on getting sufficient numbers to run the bus.)

The planned timetable for the day is as follows: 11.00 am Arrivals at the Catholic Shrine. 12.00 pm Pilgrimage Mass celebrated by Bishop Patrick; followed by picnics, visits to the Slipper Chapel and an opportunity for the Sacrament of Reconciliation. 3.00 pm Holy Mile Procession departs. (A coach will be provided for those who cannot walk the Holy Mile). Benediction in the Abbey Grounds. 5.00 pm Depart for home. (Buses will be at the village coach park).

Peoples Ponderings: We have started the month of May, which the Church has traditionally dedicated to Our Blessed Mother Mary. It is a time when we are encouraged to improve our relationship with the Mother of our Saviour and one of the best ways, we can do that is by praying the Rosary. Sometimes doing the whole rosary can seem a little daunting, so it might be good to start with just doing one of the mysterious - so just one decade. In 2020 England will be rededicated to Our Lady (We hold the title of Mary's Dowry). As part of the preparations for this important event the statue of Our Lady of Walsingham is on a tour of the Catholic Cathedrals. She is due to be in St Barnabas Cathedral Nottingham from the 10th-12th October. My hope is that we can arrange a coach from Scunthorpe. I also hope to run the CAFÉ course on Our Lady in the month of October.

Father Neil

REFLECTION: The Lord calls to each of us, even in our weakness and sin to love our God above all else. We may ask if we willingly run to the Lord like Peter did, even when faced with setbacks, disappointments and trials. We need to keep in mind that the Lord is always ready to renew us in faith and give us fresh hope in all the challenges of life.

Prayer: Almighty God, who pours out the spirit of grace and of supplication to all who ask for it; Deliver me, when I draw near to you, from coldness of heart and wanderings of mind, so that with steadfast thoughts and kindled affections, I may worship You in spirit and in truth; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
