Pope Francis's Prayer Intention for May: Evangelization - Church in Africa

That the Church in Africa, through the commitment of its members, may be the seed of unity among her peoples and a sign of hope for the continent.

6th Sunday of Easter (C)

First Reading:

Acts 15:1-2.22-29

Theme: It has been decided by the Holy Spirit and by ourselves not to saddle you with any burden beyond these essentials.

Some men came down from Judaea and taught the brothers, Unless you have yourselves circumcised in the tradition of Moses you cannot be saved. This led to disagreement, and after Paul and Barnabas had had a long argument with these men it was arranged that Paul and Barnabas and others of the church should go up to Jerusalem and discuss the problem with the apostles and elders. Then the apostles and elders decided to choose delegates to send to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; the whole church concurred with this. They chose Judas known as Barrabbas and Silas, both leading men in the brotherhood, and gave them this letter to take with them:

The apostles and elders, your brothers, send greetings to the brothers of pagan birth in Antioch, Syria and Cilicia. We hear that some of our members have disturbed you with their demands and have unsettled your minds. They acted without any authority from us, and so we have decided unanimously to elect delegates and to send them to you with Barnabas and Paul, men we highly respect who have dedicated their lives to the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. Accordingly we are sending you Judas and Silas, who will confirm by word of mouth what we have written in this letter. It has been decided by the Holy Spirit and by ourselves not to saddle you with any burden beyond these essentials: you are to abstain from food sacrificed to idols, from blood, from the meat of strangled animals and from fornication. Avoid these, and you will do what is right. Farewell.

The word of the Lord.

R/. Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm:

Let the peoples praise You, O God;
let all the peoples praise You.

Second Reading:

Apocalypse 21:10-14.22-23

Theme: He showed me the holy city coming down out of heaven.

In the spirit, the angel took me to the top of an enormous high mountain and showed me Jerusalem, the holy city, coming down from God out of heaven. It had all the radiant glory of God and glittered like some precious jewel of crystal-clear diamond. The walls of it were of a great height, and had twelve gates; at each of the twelve gates there was an angel, and over the gates were written the names of the twelve tribes of Israel; on the east there were three gates, on the north three gates, on the south three gates, and on the west three gates. The city walls stood on twelve foundation stones, each one of which bore the name of one of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. I saw that there was no temple in the city since the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb were themselves the temple, and the city did not need the sun or the moon for light, since it was lit by the radiant glory of God and the Lamb was a lighted torch for it.

The word of the Lord.

R/. Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, Alleluia!
Jesus said: "If anyone loves me he will keep my word,
and my Father will love him and we shall come to him."
Alleluia!

Gospel Reading:

John 14:23-29

Theme: The Holy Spirit will remind you of all I have said to you.

Jesus said to his disciples: 'If anyone loves me he will keep my word, and my Father will love him, and we shall come to him and make our home with him. Those who do not love me do not keep my words. And my word is not my own: it is the word of the he one who sent me. I have said these things to you while still with you; but the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all I have said to you. Peace I bequeath to you, my own peace I give you, a peace the world cannot give, this is my gift to you. Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid. You heard me say: I am going away, and shall return. If you loved me you would have been glad to know that I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I. I have told you this now before it happens, so that when it does happen you may believe.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

R/. Praise to you Lord Jesus Christ.

Communion Antiphon:

If you love me, keep my commandments, says the Lord.
and I will ask the Father
and he will send you another Paraclete,
to abide with you for ever, alleluia.

Briars 50th Anniversary:

This year the Briars Youth Centre is 50 years old. It is the oldest Catholic Youth Centre in the Country and has had a huge impact on many young people in our diocese and beyond. As part of the celebrations the Briars is looking to raise £50k towards refurbishment. On behalf of the Parish I will be sponsoring one of the Bedrooms (£500). A plaque will be placed outside showing that our parish has sponsored a room.

If you wish to make a personal donation you can send a cheque to the Briars or text BRIARS to 70970 to donate £5.

Celebrations taking place at the Briars:

Saturday 29th June 12pm to 10pm - Live bands, family activities, food court, Gin Bar, local Beer, After tea and Diocesan football tournament
Sunday 30th June 11am Mass with Bishop Patrick followed by celebrations until 3pm

Holy Day of Obligation - The Ascension of the Lord:

This Thursday is a Holy Day of Obligation. So, like every Sunday Catholics are expected to attend Mass. We don't have many Holy Days during the year, so please make the effort to attend.

Mass Times:

8.30am - Holy Souls
10.00am - St Norbert's
11.00am - Holy Souls
(Polish)
6.30pm - Holy Souls

Peoples Ponderings:

This week we have heard the worrying news about the Steel Works in Scunthorpe. This period of uncertainty is not easy for anyone and I am aware that so many people's jobs are connected either directly or indirectly with the steel works. On Thursday I joined with other Christian Churches to pray for the town, and I think that this is a time when we must all pull together. Sadly, it does seem that the government is currently fixated on Brexit and who sits in number 10. We can only hope and pray that they will not allow these things to distract them from the important role of governing and helping to provide work for the people.

St Joseph, the worker - Pray for us

Fr. Neil

REFLECTION: The Spirit of Christ living in us will 'teach' us the ways of God, reminding' us of all that the Saviour has given to the world. No matter how unworthy we may feel, we are invited to enter into the love of the Father, Son and Spirit 'poured into our hearts by the Holy Spirit which has been given to us', inviting us to journey confidently towards the final Kingdom, where they will be our eternal joy.

Prayer: Lord, we know we can trust that you are there to guide us and direct us and inspire us. We must trust in the power and authority and discernment that you have given us so that we may continue to apply the gospel in each and every new situation and circumstance of daily life..... for you are with us... you abide with and in us. You guide us, lead us and inspires us, and the Holy Spirit shows us the way and gives us the direction. Amen
